The University of Macau Campus-wide Alcohol Policy

As a community of scholars and learners, the University of Macau expects those within its community to be responsible with the use of alcohol and believes that they should behave in a manner that does not endanger themselves or others regarding the consumption of alcoholic beverages. Furthermore, students will be held fully responsible for their own behavior.

1. This policy shall guide the use of alcohol everywhere on the University of Macau and apply to students and student-related activities of the University of Macau, including all events organized or sponsored by its organizations, faculties or administrative units.
2. Sale of alcoholic beverages to students is prohibited on the premises of the University of Macau, except when the sale is approved by Rector or Vice Rectors.
3. Consumption of alcoholic beverages by students is permitted with proper approval on the licensed premises of the University of Macau.
4. Service of alcoholic beverages in student activities must obtain prior approval from Rector, Vice Rectors, Dean of Students, College Masters, Deans of Faculties and Head of Independent Academic Units.
5. When approving the service of alcoholic beverages at student activities, the above-mentioned authorities shall ensure the presence of an adequate number of staff member(s) at the event to prevent alcohol-related risks from happening.
6. While serving alcoholic beverages at the event, the host must also provide nonalcoholic beverages and food in adequate amounts.
7. No alcoholic beverages may be served to students under the age of 18 at any time.
8. Infractions of this policy and Student Disciplinary Regulations by student or student organization, even when acting under the influence of alcohol, will be subjected to disciplinary actions by the appropriate University authorities.
